

Eisenhower Slashes Truman Budget $8.5 Billions

U. N. Demands Release Of Additional 375 Prisoners

'Crazy Quilt' Defense Plan Junked By Ike

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower dramatically junked yesterday what he called the Truman "crazy quilt" defense blueprint and announced in its stead a more gradual military-foreign aid program pointing toward an $1 1/2 billion dollar slash in appropriations for the next fiscal year.

President Truman had asked $72,900,000,000 in new appropriations. Under the Eisenhower plan this would be cut to $64,400,000,000.

Eisenhower told a news conference he doesn't expect his new policy, which he described as a "radical" change, will make possible a completely balanced budget for the year beginning July 1. But he declared his administration is making progress in that direction — and thus toward cutting taxes — every day.

The President made his announcement, billed in advance as a momentous one, on his 101st day in office, a day on which he also sent Congress a plan for reshuffling the Defense Department in the twin interest of economy and of strengthening civilian control.

Reading from a prepared statement, Eisenhower blasted in emphatic terms the Truman administration's striving for maximum Western defense strength in 1954 or 1955 on the theory that the Russians would have the air strength by that time to launch an attack.

This, the President said sharply, is "artificial arithmetic" — part of a "crazy quilt of promises, commitments and contracts" which has put his administration in a strait-jacket woven from $1 billion dollars appropriated for military purposes in the past and still unspent.

"It's just as if the late administration had gone to the store and ordered $1 billion of goods, which we've got to pay for as they're delivered, in addition to paying the regular household running expenses."

The President went on to say: "This morning I told the legislative leaders that already we can see our way clear to ask the Congress to appropriate at least $1 1/2 billion dollars less new money for fiscal 1954 than had been asked for by the previous administration."

"This is a preliminary figure based on three months' hard work. The great bulk of it, of course, relates to security programs. More definite figures will become available as appropriation requests are presented to the Congress during the next few weeks."

Eisenhower noted that he was talking only about new appropriations for fiscal 1954. "Actual cash savings for 1954," he added, "will be determined only as Congress acts on the appropriation requests."

Appropriations made for any fiscal year and actual spending in that year never jibe exactly, and sometimes there is a big difference. For example, Congress may appropriate money for a warship one year but the money may not actually be spent for several years because of the length of time it takes to plan and build a ship. Truman had estimated that spending in the coming fiscal year would be $78,600,000,000.

While Eisenhower did not say just how much spending would be cut, Rep. Dewey Short (R-Mo.) said the administration hopes for a reduction of at least $4,400,000,000. Short attended a conference of congressional leaders with Eisenhower this morning.

Still uncertain was whether the Eisenhower administration would signal for a tax reduction this year, as many members of Congress hope. Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) said budget cuts so far outlined are "not enough yet to assure a tax reduction" but he has not yet abandoned hope for such a reduction this year.

Father Confesses Killing Daughter

Philadelphia (AP) — Police said Peter Bozzelli, 44, last night confessed the slaying of his daughter, Gloria, 24, whose body was found in an Army duffel bag near Mays Landing, N. J., April 24.

Test Postponed

Las Vegas, Nev. (AP) — Intense radiation from last Saturday's atomic test at Yucca Flat yesterday forced postponement of another nuclear experiment scheduled for Saturday.

REP. GEORGE A. DONDERO of Michigan (center) chats with key witnesses at the House Public Works Committee hearing in Washington on the nation's highway program. Others are George G. Hyland (left), commissioner of public works in Boston, and Raleigh W. Gamble, director of Milwaukee expressways. Mayor Martin Kennelly, of Chicago, urged an increase of federal aid for highways.

Senate Defeats Amendment For Federal Control Over Offshore Mineral Riches

Washington (AP) — The Senate voted 59 to 21 yesterday against a proposal that the federal government retain control of all mineral riches in the ocean beds three miles or more offshore and devote any revenue to reduction of the national debt.

Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) advanced the idea as an amendment to an administration-backed bill for state ownership of the submerged coastal lands within historic state boundaries.

These boundaries run three miles out to sea for all states except Florida and Texas, whose claim to territory extending 10 1/2 miles into the Gulf of Mexico is recognized in the bill.

Majority Leader Taft of Ohio called the Monroney amendment "half-baked" before it was defeated on a rollcall vote. He said a comprehensive bill dealing with administration of the continental shelf beyond the proposed state limits would be introduced soon after the present bill is passed.

But Monroney argued that Congress would establish a dangerous precedent if it recognized any boundaries beyond the three-mile limit — a limit it has stood on in international negotiations.

As to using any revenues from oil and gas production for reduction of the 26 1/2 billion dollar public debt, Monroney said it was possible the only way the huge obligation could be cut down.

"We all know," he said, "it will be difficult to keep taxes high enough to pay a thin dime on the debt."

The Senate is forging ahead to anticipated passage of the state ownership bill when a final vote is taken next Tuesday.

Boy Singer Signs $13,000 Contract

Los Angeles (AP) — Here's what one hit record will do. A few months ago Jimmy Boyd, 13, was just another kid hillbilly singer around town. Then he recorded "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" which sold a couple of million platters during the Christmas season.

Yesterday Superior Judge Frank O. Swain approved a movie contract for the youngster which will pay him $13,000 for four weeks movie work.

Two Found Shot Philadelphia (AP) — A 40-year-old man and a woman about eight years younger were found both shot to death in a parked car last night. They were not identified.

Mild May Day Order Greeted Soviet Union's Armed Forces

Moscow, Friday (AP) — Russia's defense minister, Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin, greeted the Soviet armed forces this May Day with one of the briefest and mildest orders of the day in many years.

The order ran about 150 words and hailed the "Communist party of the Soviet Union — inspirer and organizer of all our victories."

In previous years it always wound up "Long Live Stalin." This year it said "Long Live the Communist party of the Soviet Union." There was no mention in the order of the leaders of the post-Stalin regime in the Kremlin.

Russia's May Day military parade through Red Square today was expected to last less than half an hour — the shortest on record.

Tornado Rips Georgia Town; Many Killed

Warner Robins, Ga. (AP) — At least 11 persons were killed yesterday and an estimated 108 injured when a tornado leveled several blocks of this Central Georgia city of 8,000 residents.

More fatalities were feared. The mayor earlier told state Adj. Gen. Ernest Vandiver that an estimated 15 were killed. National guardsmen were rushed to the stricken city, about 115 miles south of Atlanta.

The vicious twister boiled in from the south and flattened about 30 apartment buildings, reports said. Many were two and three-story structures. Apparently the storm skirted the sprawling Air Force base northeast of the city. First reports had the base taking the brunt of the tornado.

The deadly wind funnel ripped roofs from houses and tossed automobiles like matchsticks into houses and atop piles of debris.

Across the Ocmulgee River, the tornado lanced into the small community of Bullard, wrecking houses and injuring more people. Communications between Macon, 17 miles to the north and the nearest large city, and Warner Robins and Bullard were almost totally smashed.

Hard-pressed hospitals were not able to estimate the number of injured, but Deputy Sheriff Bill Adams of Houston County said the toll was certain to run "into the hundreds."

The tornado piled into the edge of Warner Robins town proper and apparently missed most of the city as well as the Air Force base.

Montgomery Probe Ends

Washington (AP) — A House committee closed out an investigation of the suicide of John C. Montgomery yesterday with a round of criticism of State Department red tape and "slipshod administration."

Montgomery, 41-year-old chief at the State Department's Finnish desk, hanged himself at his home in the Georgetown section of Washington last Jan. 24.

Rep. Brownson (R-Ind.), chairman of a government operations subcommittee investigating circumstances of the death, said "neither Montgomery nor the ghost of Montgomery is on trial here."

He said his group went into the case after "we wandered into a field where so many glaring personnel administrative errors were uncovered that we felt something should be done."

State Department security officials testified that Montgomery was "lost" in the department 24 months — serving as acting head of the Finnish desk while personnel officials thought he was still an economist somewhere else.

Berlin Clergy See Fall Of Red Regime

Berlin (AP) — Protestantism told the East German Communist regime yesterday that it will not last long as Hitler's 12-year Reich.

The defiant prediction was displayed in a bulletin box on an outside wall of the Marienkirche in Berlin's Russian sector, where Germany's No. 1 Protestant, Bishop Otto Dieblich, preaches monthly.

It was signed by Dean Heinrich Gruber, official representative of the Protestant Church to the East German Government.

The action was in the historic tradition of Martin Luther, leader of the Protestant Reformation in the 16th century, who nailed his 95 theses to a church door at Wittenberg.

Dean Gruber's statement wholeheartedly defended the Marienkirche's youth pastor, Rev. Reinhold George, who was arrested by Red secret police after an evening service last Feb. 26 on charges of instigating its youth people's discussion group to commit "criminal acts" against the East German state.

Fifty clergymen have been jailed on anti-state charges in the Communist's current drive to destroy Protestant "youth communities" and seize the church's welfare and cultural institutions.

Chemical Blast Kills Workman

Peabody, Mass. (AP) — An earth-trembling chemical explosion blasted a small factory to fragments yesterday killing at least one man, injuring 25 persons and causing an estimated hundreds of thousands of dollars damage.

The blast rocked this North Shore industrial city, 20 miles from Boston. First reports said four were killed but two hours after the first of a series of sharp bangs no bodies were found. Fred Lawson of Salem, one of the workers, died in a hospital.

May Day Lull

Seoul (AP) — United Nations troops eyed the Korean battlefront warily for signs of Red attack on this traditional celebration day of world communism — but the lull in the fighting continued into its fourth straight day.

Tokyo (AP) — A returned U. S. soldier whose frost-bitten toes were crudely sheared and snapped off after a Winter death march to a Red prison camp related yesterday that a buddy talked him back from the brink of the grave while scores died around him.

Red-haired Cpl. Wendell H. Treffrey of Terryville, Conn., was one of less than 40 who survived among 350 U. S. infantrymen captured by Chinese Reds near the Changlin Reservoir in Northeast Korea Nov. 30, 1950.

About 230, suffering from untreated wounds, froze to death at the outset of the death march, Treffrey said in an interview. About 40 more died on the way. Others died in the camp and were buried in a frozen, common grave on a nearby hill.

But Treffrey's buddy kept him alive by taunting him: "I'll give you a week to live — and I'll get your boots when they take you to the hill."

"I lasted the week," Treffrey related, "and then he said he'd get my boots in another week. I kept on living — I wouldn't let myself die."

Treffrey suffered so severely that a Communist nurse, using common garden shears, snipped off eight of his toes, from which the frozen flesh had fallen. Treffrey himself broke off both his big-toe bones with his fingers. His weight dropped from 150 to 60 pounds.

President To Reorganize Defense Dept.

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower sent to Congress yesterday a proposed reorganization of the Defense Department which would strip some military command from the Joint Chiefs of Staff and abolish some top-level Pentagon agencies.

Appointment of six additional defense secretaries was proposed to take over the functions of the abolished agencies.

In the general reorganization, Eisenhower said, the staff of the defense secretary's office would be reduced by about 500 persons.

The Chief Executive emphasized a strengthening of "civilian responsibility" was involved.

If Congress accepts the recommendations, it will be the first major shake-up in the defense establishment since unification of all the Armed Forces in 1947.

Eisenhower said that as a former soldier and as commander-in-chief of the Armed Forces "I believe our defense establishment is in need of immediate improvement."

He commented that "we live in a perilous period" in which "Soviet Russia and her allies have it within their power to join us in the establishment of a true peace or to plunge the world into global war."

He noted that modern weapons threaten "more devastating terrors in war" and asserted: "The simple, inescapable facts make imperative the maintenance of a defense organization commanding the most modern technological instruments in our arsenal of weapons."

Eisenhower contended that the effectiveness of the military can be increased with economy. Some of the proposed changes in administration and command, the President wrote, can be accomplished without new legislation, but others will require amendments of the Defense Act of 1947.

Psychoanalysis is sweeping show business. There's hardly an actor who doesn't spend several hours a week on a couch, where, with the aid of a sympathetic psychiatrist, he hopes to unravel the tangled web of frustrated childhood and tormented maturity.

Oscar Levant, the most famous analyst (patient), used to go six times a week. Vladimir Horowitz, the pianist, couldn't figure it out. "What good has psychoanalysis done you, Oscar?" he once asked. "You're still an unhappy man."

"Sure," Levant replied, "but at least I have some place to go every day."

Allies Threaten To Free 32,000 North Koreans

Panmunjom, Friday (AP) — The U. N. Command today demanded the release of at least 375 more sick and wounded captives whom it charged the Reds were holding back in their North Korean prison camps.

Many of the captives undoubtedly are Americans. In a blunt warning delivered at a 37-minute meeting of liaison officers here today, the U. N. said Communist failure to live up to its pledge on exchanging disabled captives would throw a shadow over the broader armistice negotiations.

The U. N. Command threatened yesterday that it might turn loose in South Korea 32,000 Red Koreans who do not want to go home. Besides these, there are 16,000 Chinese who have said they would resist repatriation.

The Reds failed again today in the main armistice talks to nominate a neutral nation to take custody of war prisoners who refuse to go home.

Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. said the Reds apparently were trying to refrain from making a choice "until they get us to accept the principle that all of the POWs who will not be repatriated directly shall be physically transported to the neutral state."

Harrison again suggested Sweden but North Korean Gen. Nam Il said "only an Asian nation is reasonable and practical for this task."

The Allies told the Communists yesterday that no Asian nation was desirable because any one named might "be subjected to Communist military, economic or political influence."

The truce talks adjourned after 33 minutes until 11 a. m. tomorrow 6 p. m. EST Friday.

The U. N. Command at the liaison officers meeting told the Reds it was handing over all disabled Communists and was using the most liberal tests to determine who was qualified for repatriation.

It said it expected the Reds to do likewise. The Allies said that repatriated captives had told of 234 non-Korean and 141 Korean prisoners in Red camps eligible for release.

They said the information was gathered from "only a part of our announced North Korean prisoner of war camps."

Obviously the U. N. Command was convinced the Reds were holding back even more than the 375 sick and wounded prisoners.

The Communists said they were finished with their part of the exchange last week after handing over 684 disabled Allies including 149 Americans. The total was 79 more than they first promised.

The Allies, still returning disabled Communists, have handed back nearly 6,000 including about 950 Chinese. With two more days to go, the number repatriated to the Reds may approach 7,000.

The Allies said they were using "the most liberal yardstick" in the exchange.

"In view of this, we not only expect but insist that your side employ equally liberal criteria, the U. N. Command said.

It demanded the return of "more than 375 sick and injured ... we know you are holding against their will," plus any others.

The truce teams in their talks were considering the issue of what to do with prisoners who do not want to go home, and what neutral nation would be named to supervise them.

The Reds insist on settling the problem of the ultimate disposition of prisoners unwilling to return home before selection of a neutral nation to supervise those prisoners.

The Allies demand that a neutral nation be agreed upon before launching into the issue of what happens to the bulky captives.

The Communists want all their captured soldiers back eventually. The Allies insist that none should be forced to go home against his will.

Bid For Bankrupt Road Withdrawn

New York (AP) — The New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad has withdrawn its bid of $3,500,000 for the bankrupt New York, Ontario & Western Railroad.

The reason given was that the New Haven wanted the bid accepted and the title to the entire road delivered within 30 days from Wednesday. A spokesman in the office of Elbert Cakes, counsel for the Ontario & Western trustees, said such a transfer within 30 days would be a legal impossibility and that the whole transaction was "out the window."

Daily Record Honored By Fairchild Co.

In recognition of pioneering photo-journalism through electronic engraving, The Daily Record was presented a charter membership in the Scan-A-Graver Five Year Club by the Fairchild Camera and Instrument Corp. yesterday.

The management and department executives of the newspaper were guests of executives of Fairchild at a luncheon at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

"It is the courage, persistence and ingenuity of the customer in the field that really perfect something new," C. A. Harrison, vice president of Fairchild in charge of commercial sales, said in presenting the charter membership certificate to Merle C. Ostrom, general manager of The Daily Record.

Fairchild, he noted, has never dealt with anything but new projects. They have taken on and developed many worthwhile products on a purely creative basis.

"No matter how good a corps of engineers, researchers and skills you have in such a firm, it is people like you of The Daily Record who are really responsible for perfecting the products. You have the vision to see value in these products, as you did in the Scan-A-Graver, and battle along during the trying 'de-bugging' period until perfection is achieved."

"We at Fairchild are fully aware of the trials you had and the work you did to bring about the operating success which now attaches to the Scan-A-Graver. We extend full credit to your fine contribution."

Mr. Ostrom paid tribute to Leslie B. Carlton, one of the first operators of a Scan-A-Graver for his persistence, his patience and his skill in the operation of the electronic device which for five years has produced from photographs The Daily Record's news pictures and many advertising display cuts.

George Arnold, manager of customer engineering for Fairchild, presented Mr. Carlton with a Ronson lighter. He said Mr. Carlton, among all operators of the Scan-A-Graver, is one who contributed primarily to perfection of production with the least problem to Fairchild.

Other members of Fairchild firm present were Judson A. V. Hyatt, sales manager, Graphic Arts Division; and Cliff Hampshire, director of public relations; Samuel Dean, customer engineer.

Others present from The Daily Record were Norman O. Bender, plant superintendent; Lowell H. Cross, advertising director; Charles Edmondson, advertising manager; H. G. Heller, editor; John Hill, news editor.

Pine Brook To Build Pool

Construction of a $25,000 swimming pool was started yesterday at the teen-age camp along Route 90, just north of Stroudsburg, operated under jurisdiction of Pine Brook Bible Conference, Percy Crawford announced yesterday.

According to Crawford the pool will open June 20 when the conference site officially begins its 1953 season. Circular in construction, the pool will be 100 feet in diameter, and 11 feet deep.

Waders will use the edge of the pool and a ramp will cross midway in the pool, ending in the center while diving boards will be placed.

A modern filtering system which changes the water each eight hours will be incorporated, Crawford said. The owner indicated he expects from 6,000 to 7,000 guests during the 11 weeks the camp is open.

Nearly 200 physicians were on duty at U. S. Bureau of Indian Affairs hospitals and dispensaries in 1952.

YMCA Goal Is In Sight

Monroe County is on its way to meet a great challenge it accepted a few weeks ago—the challenge of raising $350,000 to give the youth of the county a new YMCA with every modern facility.

This community has raised $251,976 toward the Y building fund goal. For this region that is a major accomplishment.

The enthusiasm of the campaign organization personnel has been matched by contributors.

Workers have had an optimistic surge which fairly breathed the assurance of success. They demonstrated this feeling Wednesday night when the Teams Organization asked campaign leaders for a week to “clean-up” their contacts.

At the same time the Special Gifts Committee gave a pledge to stick with their job until the goal is achieved.

Exactly $98,024 is required to close out this challenging task.

Monroe County is committed to success in giving this final amount. It has gone too far along the high road of achievement in behalf of the youth of the community to even think of the word “failure.”

Are you a part of this tremendous accomplishment? If not, you should be. Get in NOW with your contribution so you, too, can be one of hundreds of proud Monroe Countians who know they have done youth a real and lasting service.

On Preventing a Surplus of Goods

(From The Wall Street Journal)

Not unexpectedly, the United Steelworkers has decided to demand a higher wage scale. If the union had adopted a simple theme song, such as “I Want What I Want When I Want It,” the issue would be clear for collective bargaining.

But the union's leaders have seen fit to offer an argument in support of their wage demand to the effect that such is necessary to prevent a surplus of consumer goods. Presumably, they mean goods that cannot be sold because consumers are unable or unwilling to pay the prices being asked for them. If the steel workers get higher pay per hour, so the argument runs, they can buy the goods that would otherwise be “surplus.”

And President Reuther of the C.I.O. and its connected United Automobile Workers, according to press reports, promptly comes into the act with a promise to the steel workers of the full support of his organizations. If higher pay for the steel makers means higher prices for steel, as in time it must, the auto workers themselves will need higher wage rates in order to help the steel workers prevent an unsalable surplus of things made of steel. So will a lot of other people.

Here is the familiar but false theory of “purchasing power” as the key to diffused prosperity. The fallacy of the theory, as it is commonly offered in support of wage demands, is that it ignores the price factor in the distribution of goods. Ignoring that factor, it falsely identifies purchasing power with the number of dollars in the wage worker's weekly pay envelope.

We in this country have had quite a little experience with the futile attempt to prevent unsalable surpluses of goods by making them more and more costly to the consumer. The record of the Commodity Credit Corporation, which buys farm products that consumers won't take in order to prevent surpluses from depressing open market prices too much, should serve as a reliable text book on the subject.

The Once Over

—by H. I. Phillips

The Addict

Jasper Muggs, a nervous wreck, had summoned his doctor. “I’ve got a bad case of switcheroo,” he said weakly. “It’s epidemic,” the doctor said. “Everybody’s down with it. There’s only one cure. Stop trying to interpret those Russian switchers.”

“That’s easy enough to say,” argued Jasper, “but everywhere I go somebody brings up the question. The papers, too, are full of speculation on Russia’s real intentions.”

“You don’t have to be full of ‘em,” said the doctor. “I’ll bet you yourself keep trying to figure it all out,” says Jasper.

“I have spells of it, but we shall discuss your case, not mine,” said the doctor. “Let’s face it . . . you have got to give up Russia.”

“It’s going to be hard,” said Jasper. “I’ve become an addict.”

“Nevertheless, I order you off the USSR. You must drop Malenkov, Molotov, Beria and the others. I am taking you off riddles within enigmas for a year.”

“You mean I’ve got to stop worrying over the Kremlin’s intentions completely?” exclaimed Jasper. “Can’t I be a moderate worrier, a sort of occasional fretter?”

“No,” snapped the doctor. “There is no such thing as a little fretting over Russian sincerity. You have to swear off completely or you’re sunk.”

“But I’ve been trying to interpret Russian moves so long that I’m an addict,” sobbed Jasper. “Can’t I taper off gradually?”

“It never works,” the doctor said. “Either you have to say, ‘To hell with Moscow’s sincerity,’ and drop the matter, or go on being a total addict. I never have known of a case where a man could be an occasional tapper of the Russian riddle. It’s always the same. You say to yourself, ‘I haven’t tried to interpret a Kremlin move in months; it won’t do me any harm to try one little interpretation now.’ And— presto—you’re on a bender!”

Jasper Muggs thought it over for a few minutes and then declared, “Doc, I don’t think I’m strong enough to cut out global thinking entirely. I haven’t the character to face at all times anybody who asks what I think of Russia’s latest switcheroo and announce firmly that I am off the stuff.”

“What?” asked Jasper eagerly.

“Global Worriers Anonymous!” said the doctor. “It’s an institution of which a man goes with other global fretters to shake off the worrying habit, especially as it concerns Russian aims and sincerity. It has cured a lot of worriers.”

“Count me in,” concluded Mr. Muggs.

Maurice Evans was pretty wonderful in that recent two-hour telecast of Hamlet, but had tough competition from the fact major-league baseball games were on video at the same time . . . In every home where there was a baseball fan there was more interest in how Shuba was doing than how Hamlet was making out. And Polonius had no chance against Reese, Westrum or Wilhelm . . . Even in the mad scene Ophelia didn’t seem convincing with Durocher out of the disturbance . . . At one point where we managed to get Laertes and Horatio on the screen, there came a loud cry of “Take the huns out, they can’t hit!” . . . In a contest to name a “Miss Nose Thumper” for 1952-53, a New York woman recently fined $3,500 for ignoring 70 parking tickets should be an easy winner, except for the fact she is a wife and mother.

The gal, over a two-year period, paid no attention whatever to more than half a hundred police summonses, her only reaction being “Oh, another one of those things!” . . . Women have always been assumed to have a respect for law greater than men, but the idea gets a kicking around by even a casual inspection of the police news . . . They now rob banks, help stick-ups, brush off the laws generally and figure in daily news of criminal proceedings . . . What’s happening to ‘em? . . . Man actually is getting uneasy in the presence of the fair sex, keeping an alert eye for the next move and wondering how far away the nearest cop is . . .

WAITING FOR HIS SHIP TO COME IN

Robert S. Allen Reports

Wilson's Trip May Pick Carney As Chief Of Staff

Washington—Defense Secretary Charles Wilson's visit to the Mediterranean may be a fatefull one for Admiral Robert B. Carney, commander of NATO forces in Southern Europe.

The private talks held by the two leaders may determine whether Carney is the next head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

His selection is largely up to Wilson for two controlling reasons:

(1) President Eisenhower is strongly inclined to Carney as successor to General Omar Bradley; (2) the President has assured Wilson that no one will be named to this key post who does not fully meet his approval.

A primary purpose of the Defense Secretary's trip to the Mediterranean was to size up Carney, whom he had not met before.

While the final choice for the JCS chairmanship is still to be determined, the President has definitely made up his mind on one major aspect of the matter.

The next incumbent will come from the Navy.

The President decided on that because he heartily favors rotating this job among the three armed services and the Navy has never held it; also, because he is an Army man and is leaning over backward to avoid anything favoring favoritism toward it.

The President has stressed this viewpoint in discussions with Wilson, General Bradley and General George Marshall, former Secretary of both the Defense and State Departments.

Next in line to Carney for the JCS chairmanship is Admiral Lynde McCormick, NATO commander in the Atlantic.

Both the President and Wilson have conferred with him. One of these meetings occurred last month when McCormick paid an unannounced visit to the White House.

Definitely not under consideration is Admiral William Fechteler, Navy member of the Joint Chiefs, and Admiral Arthur Radford, commander of the Pacific Fleet. Radford is a militant advocate of blockading the coast of Red China and played an important role in the Administration's policy of “denuclearizing” Formosa.

He is an outstanding Navy leader, but his appointment would be violently opposed by the Air Force, with whom Radford has feuded for many years.

Note: The inside word in Pentagon circles about other impending shifts is along this line: General Ridgway to become Army Chief of Staff; General Gruenther to move to Tokyo as Far Eastern commander; and General Mark

Clark to succeed Ridgway as NATO chief.

Expensive Pal—Russia is being well paid for the weapons and munitions it is shipping its satellites in Korea.

General Mark Clark has documentary evidence of that.

A captured report for last year of the North Korean Communist Party shows the Russians got around $50,000,000 in tungsten and gold for the arms supplied its satellite troops.

According to this report 1,000,000 ounces of gold, worth at least $35,000,000, was mined in North Korea and turned over to Russia. In addition, tungsten valued at $15,000,000 went to Russia. The revealing document declares, “All economic activity in the nation since the end of 1950 has as its sole objective the supply of the Army.”

Note: The South Korean government has asked UN truce negotiators to demand the Reds provide information on 50,000 ROK soldiers who disappeared in action and are believed held by the North Koreans. Basis of the South Korean claim are a number of Red radio broadcasts asserting that more than 65,000 ROKs were captured in the first nine months of the war. But so far the Reds have submitted lists showing they hold only around 15,000 ROK prisoners.

Social Whirl—The return to Washington of Mrs. Perle Mesta won't be the sad occasion certain ambitious society matrons expected. The former Minister to Luxembourg has calmed their fears by announcing she will not attempt to regain her onetime role as “queen of society.” Close friends of Mrs. Mesta say she is planning to do a lecture tour next fall . . . The appearance in the Capital of New York's famed Metropolitan Opera Company produced the greatest display of expensive furs seen in years. Hundreds of mink coats and other wraps were worn at the gala performances . . . Newest cocktail delicacy, trotted out at shining did Bertha Joseph, Maryland Democratic leader, gave for Bertha Adkins, Republican leader, consisted of sandwiches of minced raw spinach mixed with mayonnaise. The guests thought they were wonderful.

Somewhere In List Of Men Silvermaster Won't Acknowledge Lies Red Conspiracy

A Curious Pattern

Nathan Gregory Silvermaster has been described by witnesses before Congressional committees as heading a Communist conspiratorial outfit in Washington known as the Silvermaster Cell. He has also held very important positions in the government.

Silvermaster feels aggrieved that his past is being investigated. He insisted that persistent efforts are being made to injure him and that he is a loyal citizen who has “never betrayed the interests of the United States.” So, the Jenner Committee gave him ample opportunity to display his loyalty by providing information which could clarify his own position and even justify prior conduct. This opportunity he neglected.

However, in the course of the hearing, he produced a pattern of names which must make some sense, but what the sense of it is, I do not know.

He divides human beings into three categories:

1. Those whom he acknowledges and of whom he will speak. In this category, he places the following: William Ullmann, Virgil L. Bankson, Harry Dexter White, Louis Bloch, Lee Pressman, Edward U. Condon, Leo Fishman, Jacob Kaufman, Philip Mullenbach, David Ziskind, Boris Skvirsky, C. B. Baldwin, Margaret Ostrov-November.

2. Those whom he cannot recall, although they were actually associated with him. In some cases, after not recalling, he takes refuge in the Fifth Amendment. In this mixed category he places the following: William T. Stone, Barbara Hoffmeister, Louis Bernstein, Bernice Brisker, Arthur Eden, Julian Frechtman, Myron L. Hoch, Lawrence Kegan, Harold B. November, Henry Beitscher.

3. Those to whom he cannot refer because to do so would incriminate him. In this category, he places the following: Harry Bridges, Alger Hiss, Whittaker Chambers, Lauchlin Currie, Don Post (alias for Louis Bloch), Harold Glasser, Harold Ware, Earl Browder, Sam Darcy, Walter Krivitzky, General George V. Strong, Robert P. Patterson, Elizabeth Bentley, George Silverman, Robert A. Brady, Robert Merriman, Owen Lattimore, David Niles, Max Lowenthal, David Wahl, Frank Cox, Michael Greenberg, Allan Rosenberg, Louise Branstetter, Paul Ribeson, Solomon Adler, Charles S. Flato, Sam Kagel, Paul Radin, Edwin Smith, Mary Van Kleeck, Haskon Chevalier, Joseph Fels Barnes, Anna Falcoff, Elton L. Guthrie, Sam Walters, Richard Sasuly, Palmer Webber, Robert K. Lamb, Mary Dublin Keyserling, Sol Leschinsky, Harold (Henry?) Collins, Herbert Schimmel, Fritz Manuel, Catherine Bauer.

The third category is a startling list because, with certain obvious exceptions, it includes the hard core of Communist activity in the United States. Why it would incriminate Silvermaster to acknowledge General Strong or Robert P. Patterson or one or two others on this list is beyond understanding unless it would lead to his perjury, but some of the others may lead to evidence of conspiracy. I do not know the answer.

I went to considerable trouble to isolate these various names in Silvermaster's testimony. For instance, Harry Dexter White, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury when Henry Morgenthau was its Secretary, Silvermaster acknowledges. But White is dead. He dropped dead shortly after he gave testimony before a Congressional committee. White was deeply involved in the Soviet conspiracy. Does Silvermaster acknowledge him because he is dead, but not Earl Browder because he is alive? Or, why does he acknowledge Lee Pressman, who admitted his Communist affiliations, but not Jewish Fels Barnes, who denies such affiliations? If Harry Dexter White can be acknowledged because he is dead, why not Harold Ware who is also dead?

It would seem that, with the exception of a few names that would serve as a bridge in a perjury charge, somewhere in this list of persons whom he will not acknowledge because even to know of their existence would incriminate Silvermaster, as he stated, lies the conspiratorial web. These are the persons to be protected, even if such protection involves going to prison.

Nathan Gregory Silvermaster was born in Odessa, Russia. He migrated to the United States in 1915 and was naturalized as a citizen in 1927. He studied in Russian, English and American schools, mostly American. He got a bachelor's degree from the University of Washington and a doctorate from the University of California. His thesis for his doctorate was “Lenin's Contribution to Economic Thought Prior to the Bolshevik Revolution.” (This, too, he refused to acknowledge under oath although it is a matter of public record.)

MAN WITH A PUTTER

Al Besselink, the 28-year-old Grossinger pro who topped all of the thrills by sinking an 8-foot down grade putt to win the Tournament of Champions (at Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn, Las Vegas) phoned the Runyon Fund treasurer in Hollywood late Sunday afternoon . . . “I made it! I made it! The biggest thrill of my life!”

“Congratulations,” we told the man who beat us out of $40,000 we might have won if Earl Stewart of Texas had come in first.

“I kept thinking of Babe Didrikson and all you guys on the Runyon Committee,” said the new champion. “Where do I send the $5,000 I promised to fight cancer?”

“Send it to me; I'm the treasurer. Just make the check out to the Runyon Fund. It's tax deductible, you know.”

“What check?” inquired the kid champ. “I haven't got a dime!”

Irony: Champ Jim Turnesa

Al's pal, later told us that, because Besselink won't make enough this year to deduct 20% he will not be able to deduct the 50% . . . Oh, Mr. Income Tax Collector, what kind of arithmetic is that?

President Eisenhower's passion for golf was shared by several White House predecessors: Coolidge, Harding, Wilson and Taft. The White House lawn was also utilized as a practice fairway by Harding and Wilson . . . Taft once wagered $1,000 that he could shatter 100 on a Boston course which was then considered the nation's toughest. After the 300-pound Chief Exec won the bet his joy was boundless. He publicly kissed the First Lady and did a jig.

U. S. News-World Report explains Ike's devotion to the pastime. “It provides relaxation and exercise and also gives him a sanctuary where he can escape reporters, visitors and government worries.”

A pro once explained why golf is a difficult game to master: “You're always playing against yourself.”

Mark Twain played the game with more enthusiasm than skill. An interviewer asked him: “Do you play golf?”

Twain intoned: “I don't play golf. But I can give it up.”

A sign in the clubhouse of a Long Island course: “Players will refrain from picking up lost balls until they have stopped rolling.”

Bob Benchley once read about a Boston bluesie who declared that playing golf on the Sabbath was a sin. Bob commented: “Playing golf isn't a sin. But the way some people play it is a crime.”

One of the favorite golfing yarns concerns the player who teed his ball and said: “I'll make this one with a drive and a putt.” He then topped the ball and it dribbled several feet off the tee.

The caddy handed him a putter and quipped: “Now for a heluva putt!”

Will Rogers once played with a minister who kicked up showers of sand while attempting to emerge from a trap. The frustrated minister finally dropped his club and glared at the undisturbed ball.

Rogers later observed: “That was the most profane silence I have ever heard.”

Here is the classic golfer's lament: “I think that I shall never see a hazard rougher than a tree—a tree over which my ball must fly if on the green it is to lie; a tree which stands upon that green to guard, and make the shots extremely hard; a tree whose leafy arms extend, to kill the masher shot I send; a tree that stands in silence there, while angry golfers rave and swear. Niblicks are made by fools like me, who cannot ever miss a tree.”—Anon.

This is another version: “Poems are made by fools like me but only God can make a tree.”

Then there's the one about the hambo who stepped up to the ball—swung and missed. He tried again and whiffed. His third attempt was to no avail. The crowd was embarrassed by his ineptitude. Not Our Hero, though.

He promptly gagged: “Tough course, isn't it?”

Try and Stop Me

The Harvard lad vowed he was knee-deep in love with her, so she put him on her wading list.

A golfing fanatic came home about 9 p. m., kissed his wife absent-mindedly, and asked, “Is our son in yet?” “He arrived” just before you did,” she reported.

“He said he caddied for you for 36 holes today.” “So that's it,” said the g.f., his eyes lighting up. “I knew that boy looked familiar.”

Looking At Life

—by Erich Brandeis

The grass on our lawn had grown to an indecent height.

The man who usually cuts it had been too busy with his own chores to attend to mine. Every time I called him on the phone, it would be, “tomorrow,” “tomorrow,” “tomorrow.”

But when tomorrow came there never was the lawnmower man.

In the meantime, the grass grew taller and taller, until I finally raised such a Cain with him that he did show up at last and—now that the grass is half cut, it has started to rain again and there is another “tomorrow” for sure.

Yes, some of these “tomorrows” that happen in our lives seem almost unbearable.

Stroudsburg Teachers Endorse Broad-Base Tax For State

Reasons Given For Support Of Proposal

Stroudsburg teachers joined the East Stroudsburg High School faculty yesterday in endorsing a broad base tax for the Commonwealth.

At an Executive Committee meeting of the Stroudsburg Teachers Association, faculty members gave their endorsement to a form of State taxation which would permit the State to continue its subsidization of county agencies including educational systems, hospitals and public assistance.

Stroudsburg's approval was given for the same reasons as those cited by East Stroudsburg High faculty members in their announcement Wednesday.

In addition to this, the executive committee of the local faculty said "Contribution on a local basis would be unbearable, not only for education but for other services as well."

"Unless the State contributes, local citizens would not be able to stand" the burden of costs established by a past legislature.

Neither of the two groups has endorsed a specific form of "broad-base" taxation.

Attending the meeting yesterday were officers of the executive committee and other faculty members.

A report on the amount of money paid back into the county by the State sources was heard.

According to the report, State turned a total of $2,113,542 back into the county for use by local agencies during the 1951-53 biennium. An additional $978,655 in soldiers' bonus payments went back to Monroe County sources.

Couple Buys Residence In East Borough

Deed showing transfer of the diner on Ninth St., Stroudsburg, to Floyd Warner, that borough, was recorded yesterday at the courthouse.

Grantees were listed as Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Russopolous and George Metropolis, all of Stroudsburg.

Lizzie Smith, Chestnut Hill, sold a small tract to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rutman, Egypt, Pa.

A residence on Elm St., East Stroudsburg, was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Angle from Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Arnt, all of East Stroudsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith, East Stroudsburg, sold to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shook, Stroud Township, a residence in East Stroudsburg on Birch St., adjoining land of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad.

School Host To Directors

East Stroudsburg borough school board and school officials played host last night to school directors from nine townships in this area.

At a dinner meeting in the borough Junior High School, the board members discussed current legislation, approved a school calendar for next year and heard progress reports from school administrators.

Presiding officer at the dinner was Carl T. Secor, supervising principal of East Stroudsburg school system.

Mr. Secor introduced Ralph O. Burrows and Theodore Miller who gave reports on progress in East Stroudsburg High and Junior High Schools respectively.

Honore Walters, vice president of the borough school board, welcomed the township directors to the dinner. County Superintendent John C. Little gave a summary of current legislation pending in Harrisburg.

School directors took no action opposing or endorsing any of the bills now before legislature, since all members of individual boards were not present, Secor said.

Represented at the dinner were Middle Smithfield, Price, Stroud, and Smithfield townships from Monroe; Porter and Lehman Townships from Pike County; Mount Pocono Borough; Bethel Township and Upper Mount Bethel Township from Northampton County.

All boards represented have children attending East Stroudsburg High School.

The dinner was prepared by home economics students in the junior high school, under supervision of Mrs. Ruth Theisen.

Y Solicitors Take Part In Cleanup Drive

The YMCA "Finish the Job" Building Fund Campaign Organization is moving forward in contacting prospective givers in preparation for the Teams Organization cleanup meeting to be held Tuesday night, May 5, at the Penn Stroud.

A special table will be arranged for the Special Gifts Committee who will make another report.

Holt Wyckoff, general co-chairman, and the section chairmen and division leaders are asking every worker in the organization to procure at least one more subscription and to develop as many more quota busters and quota busting teams and divisions as possible.

New quota busters on individual score named as a result of last report are: Harold Hosier, Betsy Gaunt, Roger Dunning, William Schiebel, Lester Younk, Anthony Auer, Mrs. William Karshner, Mrs. Evan Reese, Mrs. Earl Willhite, Thomas Somers, William Altier, Mrs. John Tretheway, Mrs. Paul Flory, Richard Fredenberg, Stephen Moffet, Miss Elizabeth Becker, Mrs. William Wells, Mrs. Pearl Werkheiser, Irving Sommer, Robert Widmer, E. J. McMahon, Ralph Elshberger, Howard Altman, Jr., James Somers and Homer Heller. New first citizens (double quota busters) are: Roger Capwell and Carl Decker.

Additional triple quota busters, called high browers, are: Rev. Roger C. Stimson, John Shiley, Clinton Boushell, Henry Reader and William Wells.

Quota busting teams and divisions are: Teams No. 1, Roger Dunning, Capt.; No. 2, Frank Thomas, Capt.; No. 3, W. J. Pennington, Capt.; No. 4, Clinton Boushell, Capt.; No. 5, Henry Reader, Capt.; No. 6, T. Manning Curtis, Capt.; No. 7, Mrs. C. R. Heller, Capt.; No. 8, James Somers, Capt.; No. 9, William Wells, Capt.; No. 10, Peter Wyckoff, Capt.; Division 1, Fred Rhodes, Manager, and Division VIII, Max Stadfeld, manager.

Mr. Wyckoff calls attention to the fact that many workers and teams need just a few more dollars to reach their quotas.

The campaign organization has raised $252,051.50 on its goal of $350,000. The leaders are confident

Grouping Of School Districts Into Units Will Not Affect Pleasant Valley Jointure

(This is the first in a series of articles on a plan to set up four or five school units in Monroe county.)

When the State Facilities Survey submitted its proposal for reorganization of the Monroe County school plan, Pleasant Valley Jointure made up the first of a proposed four units.

Pleasant Valley Jointure has been in operation since July 1 last year. It is made up of Chestnut Hill, Eldred, Hamilton, Polk and Ross Townships.

The five townships entered into a jointure agreement voluntarily after investigations of joint school potentials.

Since the jointure is already in operation, reorganization of the county school plan will have little or no effect on Pleasant Valley's school set-up.

As matters now stand, Pleasant Valley has not agreed on a site for its proposed new million-dollar secondary school. A variety of sites have been considered by the board during the past two months.

While a secondary school site remains to be determined, two of Pleasant Valley's individual boards are now in the process of building elementary schools for their township children.

A building housing grades one through six is now under construction in Eldred Township. It is a four-room plus one-all-purpose-room building.

A seven-room plus all-purpose-room building is now being erected by Hamilton Township near Sciota. It will house grades one through six and will replace Hamilton's present seven one-room buildings and one two-room building which clear a meeting of Tuesday night's clean-up result of the Teams Organization, and the continued faithful work of the Special Gifts Committee, the entire campaign goal will be reached.

Prospective contributors who have not yet been seen are urged to call 2718 and a worker will be sent.

accommodate grades one through eight.

With completion of these two elementary buildings and the eventual construction of the joint high school building, all one-room schools in the five townships will be discontinued.

Present secondary school centers at Kresgeville (Polk) and Brodheadsville (Chestnut Hill) will be turned over to elementary education purposes.

The proposed joint high school building will house grades seven to twelve. This means approximately 625 students will attend the school when it is completed.

During the 1952-53 school year, Pleasant Valley Jointure had a total enrollment of 1,116 pupils. School population is expected to rise slightly during the next few years.

When State School Facilities Survey chairman Harold Martin submitted the proposed four-unit plan to Monroe County School Board, the local board rejected the consolidation of Units 2 and 3 into one complete unit.

Primary reason for this objection was a matter of logical transportation difficulties, county board members pointed out.

No objections were raised by either county board or the survey to retaining Pleasant Valley Jointure as it now stands for Unit 1.

With its joint board system in operation for ten months, this means that Pleasant Valley has taken a step forward in a direction now specified by law.

According to Act 361, passed by the legislature nearly eight years ago, reorganization of county plans is now mandatory.

In setting up its joint school system, the West End, Hamilton and Ross townships are now at least one long jump ahead of the rest of Monroe County.

No definite plan has yet been approved for the reorganization, either by county or State. But reorganizing is now compulsory. It is only a matter of time.

Signal Depot To Fill Three Clerical Jobs

Tobyhanna—Three clerical positions, one applicable to the blind, were opened by the U. S. Civil Service Commission for the Signal Corps depot here and May 12 was set at the deadline for applications.

The Philadelphia office of Civil Service listed the positions as stenographer, typist and dictating machine transcriber, the latter open for the blind.

Salaries range from $2500 to $3175 annually and examinations will be conducted in Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and Hazleton in the future.

The salary is based on a 40-hour work week, with overtime pay on authorization. Preference benefits go to veterans on honorable discharge from the service, with five points added to earned ratings based on active service.

Ten points are added to ratings of applicants who establish claims as disabled, the wife of disabled veteran, an unmarried widow of a veteran or the mother of a deceased or disabled ex-serviceman or woman.

Applicants must have reached their 16th birthday on date of filing. There is no maximum age, although those of 70 are hired on a one-year contract basis.

Duties of stenographers call for taking and transcribing dictation of moderate nature and performing general office work. Salaries range from $2700 on the GS-2 classification to $2950 on GS-3.

Typists are expected to perform general office work and type at moderate rate of speed. Pay in this category ranges from $2500 to $3175 annually.

The dictating machine transcriber is required to record, on a typewriter, material which has been acoustically or electrically recorded on cylinders, belts or discs. Pay in this class is $2700 to $2950 annually.

Blind applicants must be able to hear the spoken voice with or without a hearing aid. It was noted that some typing positions may be suitable for deaf applicants who have sufficient good vision. All applicants must be U. S. citizens or owe allegiance to the country.

Applications may be secured from the Third United States Civil Service Region, Philadelphia, or any first or second class post office.

School Band Lists Program For Concert

Stroudsburg High School presents its annual Spring band concert tonight at 8:15 in the school auditorium.

Instrumental music director John W. Pyle will conduct the band. Sam Newman will be student conductor.

"Americans We March" by Tillman, "Lustspiel Overture" by Bela, "Blue Tango" by Leroy Anderson, "T. V. Suite" by Walters, "Gypsy Guitars" by Bennett and "The Great Century March" by Weber.

Also taking part in the "T. V. Suite" will be the "Decemettes," a vocal group formed and directed by Numa Snyder, choral director at the school.

Other selections to be heard are "The Green Domino," "Four Episodes for Band," "Marcho Scherzo," "Chalot Overture," "Strauss Medley," "Tubby the Tuba" and "Man of the Hour March."

Proceeds from the concert will be used to start a uniform fund, designed to purchase 60 new uniforms for the band. It now has 58 members.

One of the highlights of the concert will be the presentation of the annual "Arion award" to a deserving member of the band group. The award is made on a basis of citizenship, musicianship and contribution.

In tonight's concert program, eight seniors will be playing their final engagement with the high school band.

Floyd Warner Purchases Diner From Metropoulos, Russopulos

By James B. Gaffney

A business partnership which extended 34 years concluded at 6 p.m. yesterday when George Metropoulos and Nicholas Russopulos turned the key on their Lackawanna Trail Diner, N. Ninth St., Stroudsburg and delivered the restaurant business to Floyd Warner, veteran businessman.

James B. Gaffney

The affable pair who like to joke about their managerial assignments by relating "Waiters come and waiters go, George with the flat feet, Nicholas slow", have an enviable record as restaurateurs.

Until 10 years ago their diner operated around-the-clock, then they decided 6 p.m. was long enough after 12 hours of work. But in their 34 years, as George explains, the diner was closed only once. "That was about 1929 when we locked the door for an afternoon so we could attend the funeral of a friend."

George and Nick came here from New Jersey and opened a restaurant in East Stroudsburg, across from the D&W Railroad station. After three years they bought the diner and then began an uninterrupted period of 31 years on Ninth St. In leaving the establishment they asked to be remembered to patrons who supported them during their tenure in business.

The new owner is no stranger to Monroe County business. Warner was born in Tannersville and for many years operated a milk route in this section. Later he became owner of Stroudsburg Recreation Hall, an establishment he ran eight years.

Mrs. Edith Werkheiser, of Selota, will serve as cook at Warner's Diner. Present plans call for Warner to maintain the same hours as his predecessors. He also purchased George's home adjoining the diner and George will reside with his son and daughter at 908 Main St., Stroudsburg.

A half-century in business was marked this week by City Coal Co., 270 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

Started in 1903 by Abraham Zabriske and W. W. L'Hommiedie, the pair hauled their coal with the help of two teams of horses. They purchased the business interest from R. R. Coolbaugh and at the peak of the "horse-n-buggy" days, were using 15 teams of horses to expedite delivery. Today they have six trucks, using four on the road and two in the coal yard.

L'Hommiedie died 21 years ago and his interest in the partnership was continued by his wife, Josephine Wallace L'Hommiedie.

One of the pioneers of the custom tailoring trade in Stroudsburg resumed business this week after five years of retirement.

John DeVivo, original founder of the DeVivo - Quaresimo clothing store at 552 Main St., Stroudsburg, opened a tailor shop at 31 N. 6th St., Stroudsburg, Wednesday.

His original store became a partnership almost 40 years ago when he joined his nephew, James Guarasimo. They operated together 31 years before DeVivo's retirement.

At the present site, formerly a residence, DeVivo has made extensive renovations and has an attractive shop from which to operate. For the present he will work alone, altering and making men's clothing.

Jim (It's a mule!) Somers took over yesterday the duties of merchandising at the Stroudsburg Wyckoff-Sears store while Henry Kresge, manager, retires temporarily.

It's a traditional feat termed the annual "Sears Days" sales and continues through Saturday, May 9. The big fireman will stage the nine-day event in competition with 700 other assistant managers of Sears stores for the title of number one assistant manager in the country.

Planned by the employees, the sale of seasonal merchandise items could result in Somers winning the national title. The awards include a trophy and trip to Chicago to meet the top brass of Sears.

Mt. Tom Restaurant, located on Route 209 a mile and a half north-east of East Stroudsburg, is now under new management.

Edward P. Tonkay, of Philadelphia, disclosed this week he and his wife, Marie have purchased Owango, Inc., owned by Lottie Metelja.

The restaurant once was operated by Johnston and Yunkin and attracted many guests. In 1941, due to gas rationing, the partnership was dissolved and the business reverted to other interests over the years, Tonkay said.

Extensive dining room renovations are planned for Mt. Tom, Tonkay said, and while the changes are being made the bar business will be continued. Tonkay expects to return the dining room to its former status, relating that diners were served to as many as 499 at the height of Mt. Tom's popularity.

Firemen's Relief Funds Reinstated

Gov. John S. Fine has signed the bill providing funds for firemen's relief associations in Pennsylvania from 2 per cent tax paid by foreign fire insurance companies, it was learned here yesterday.

It is Act No. 5 for the present session of the 1953 legislature. Originating in the House, the bill passed that body unanimously and practically so in the Senate.

The bill places back on the statute books of the state a measure which was repealed in the closing hours of the 1951 session.

The measure is identical with the one dropped two years ago. It reinstates funds to municipalities and political divisions of a county, which in turn are turned over to firemen's relief associations. Foreign insurance companies doing business in the state pay the tax.

The law was first adopted many years ago. Originally, the tax was 1 per cent, but later was doubled. The funds make possible payments of sick and death benefits.

Charles Clark, Wayne, Pa., secretary of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's association, and a number of legislative sponsors of the measure (there were nine originally) were present when Gov. Fine signed the bill.

Some 325,000 Indians in the U. S. and Alaska received medical treatment from the government in 1952.

81-Year-Old Blairstown Resident Dies

Mrs. Lulu Van Aiken, 81, died at 11:15 a. m. Wednesday at her home in Blairstown, N. J.

Mrs. Van Aiken was a native of Warren County and a lifelong resident of Blairstown Township. She had been in failing health the past seven months.

She was a member of Walnut Valley Methodist Church, Warren County, and of the Women's Society of that church. Mrs. Van Aiken was a member of Vail Grange in New Jersey.

Surviving are three sons, Homer and Phillip Van Syckle, of Blairstown and George Van Syckle of Easton; two daughters, Miss Mamie Van Syckle, Newton, N. J. and Mrs. Lewis Ayers, Columbia, N. J.; ten grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; one brother, Clark Linberry, Washington, N. J.; one sister, Mrs. Laura Heisel, Frenchtown, N. J. and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. in Walnut Valley Methodist Church, Warren County. Friends may call Saturday from noon to 2 p. m. at the church. Rev. David Parker will officiate. Interment will be made in Cedar Ridge cemetery.

Lantern funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Prices Slightly Higher for White Sidewalls

WE HEAR THAT SOME PEOPLE hold off buying LIFE-SAVERS because they think the price must be pretty high. See what you think after you look at this chart.

Yes, B. F. Goodrich LIFE-SAVER Tubeless Tires do cost a little more than a regular tire and inner tube. Less than a third more. But that's all. Not twice as much, as some people assume. Or as some premium type tires and inner tubes do.

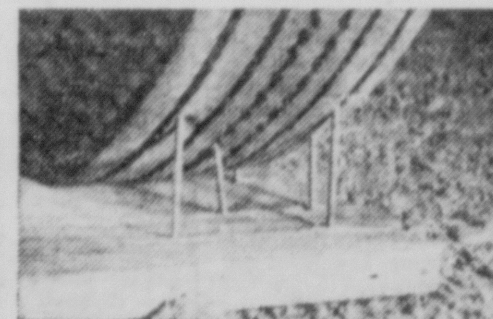

And LIFE-SAVERS cost less than regular tire and blowout protecting inner tube.

Yet the protection they give is beyond price. Protection only the Tubeless Tire can give. Protection that, as one user writes, "takes the 'gamble' out of driving."

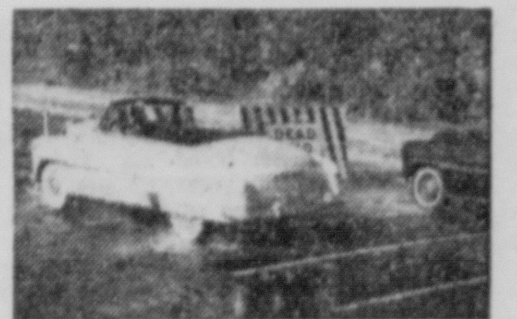

Before deciding you can't afford LIFE-SAVERS, read what they do, below, and get the price for your size.

PROTECTS AGAINST BLOWOUTS. Most blowouts result from a bruise-break inside the tire wall. In tires with tubes, the tube bridges the break. It is pinched and the tire blows out. The LIFE-SAVER has a patented liner instead of a tube. A bruise-break causes only a small leak, with time to stop safely.

SEALS ITS OWN PUNCTURES. Drive it over 3-inch spikes, it does not go flat. A patented sealant under the tread seals punctures instantly, plugs hole permanently after the nail is removed. No air loss. Typical example: J. F. Kotlar of Sheboygan, Wis., pulled 8 nails from his LIFE-SAVERS, didn't get a flat.

DEFIES SKIDS. In wet road demonstration at 30 mph, car on LIFE-SAVERS stops a car-length sooner than car on regular tires. Thousands of tiny grip-blocks, 16 to the inch, wipe a wet road so dry you can light a match on it. Tiny grip-blocks grip like a caterpillar tread, get you started fast—stop you quicker.

Monroe County PTA Council Has Share In District Conf. At College On Saturday

The Monroe Council of Parents and Teachers composed of all individual PTA units in the county will play an important role in the annual conference of the Northeast District to be held on Saturday, May 2, at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. The district meeting will be held in conjunction with the Northeast Pa. Elementary Teachers Conference.

The Monroe County Council is serving as host to the conference with Mrs. M. S. Baldwin, Mrs. O. M. Cole, Mrs. Clifford Cramer, Mrs. Howard Kintner, Mrs. Allen Sterner and Mrs. Arlington Williams serving as the registration committee. Mrs. Clarence Plattenburg and Mrs. Russell Albert are serving as registrars at the book exhibit in conjunction with the conference.

The PTA will remain in the auditorium after a joint meeting with the teachers beginning at 10 a. m. The PTA session at 11 will be opened with greetings from Mrs. David Mazer, Monroe County Council president, and John C. Litts, superintendent of Monroe County schools.

During the business meeting Mrs. Merle Stevenson, of Stroudsburg, district treasurer, will report.

During the afternoon workshops, Mrs. Mazer will also serve on the resource panel of the workshop on council activities.

A PTA luncheon will be served at 12:30 at St. Matthew's Parochial School lunchroom, and Mrs. Mazer announced yesterday that they already have 223 luncheon reservations from out of town. All county PTA units have been invited to send representatives to the conference.

Shawnee Inn Opens Today With Party

A cocktail party beginning at 6 p. m. today will officially open Shawnee Inn at Shawnee-on-the-Delaware.

A long list of dignitaries will join local residents in marking the opening and introduction of Richard Quillen, new manager.

Quillen has arranged for orchids to be flown here from Hawaii and also is bringing a native Hawaiian girl here to present the orchids to female guests, it was learned.

A dinner-dance and entertainment will follow the party. Some of the guests listed to attend include:

New Steele Home Is Scene Of Birthday Party

Swiftwater—The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Steele, on the Merry Hill road, was the scene of a birthday party, honoring Mrs. Steele on Monday night, April 27.

Gifts of a personal nature and also some for the new home were received by Mrs. Steele. One of the birthday cakes was received from Merry Hill Lodge, where both Mr. and Mrs. Steele are employed. In addition to the cakes, refreshments consisted of potato salad, sandwiches, pickles, ice cream and beverages.

Those attending the party included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Engle Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Schaeffer and children, Shirley and Lloyd; Miss Myrtle Koerner, Mrs. Emma Dyson and daughter, Nancy; Mrs. Sheldon Kresge and children, Connie, Sheldon and Olive Jane; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Engle Jr., and daughter, Patsy; and Mr. and Mrs. Steele. Invited but unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Koerner and family.

Miss Bonser, Rodenbaugh To Wed May 2

Miss Geraldine Bonser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bonser, of 815 Sarah St., will become the bride of Harold Rodenbaugh, son of Mrs. Faith Rodenbaugh, of 65 Grand St., East Stroudsburg, on Saturday afternoon at 2 at the Stroudsburg Methodist church.

Miss Bonser has selected Mrs. Josie Harris as her matron of honor with Dianne LeBar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William LeBar, as flower girl, and her brother, Edward Bonser, as ring-bearer.

Carroll Miller will be the best man, and ushers will include the bride's uncle, Thomas Bonser, a cousin, Owen Mosteller; and her brother, James Bonser.

The bride attended Stroudsburg High School, and Mr. Rodenbaugh was graduated from East Stroudsburg High School. He served in the U. S. Army for two years and recently returned from duty in France. He is now employed at the Art Metal Company.

Friends are invited to attend the ceremony.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Tonight is another one of those nights when it would be handy to be able to split into three pieces and send each piece on a different errand.

If having a dual personality conflict is schizophrenia, what would having three conflicts be? Whatever the name, we've all got it in more or less degree, it seems.

The conflict between what you have to do, what you ought to do, and what you'd like to do seems a never ending one. And the thing is that it's the conflict that wears you out, not the activity.

The Community Concert subscribers were lucky last night. They had their tickets, a wide open night, and nothing but baby-sitters to worry about.

I always admire these people who can pick out one community activity they're interested in and then give it all of their best efforts, meanwhile saying "no" to anything that might interfere or complicate those efforts.

We can be interperate with our time as well as with anything else, and outspend our budget lavishly, trying to do everything, he everywhere at once. But isn't it fun?

Angels Student Candidate For Bucknell's May Queen

Lewisburg—Miss Sally L. Spencer, Bucknell University senior from Angeris, has been chosen as one of the group of 13 seniors from whom the university's May Queen will be selected. These girls are chosen traditionally at Bucknell on the basis of their leadership and service to the university.

Twelve members of the group will serve in the May Queen's court while the 13th will be crowned Queen. Identity of the Queen is never revealed until the actual ceremony takes place.

The May Day ceremony will be a highlight of the university's annual Spring Festival and will take place Saturday afternoon, May 9.

Other events of the weekend program will include concerts by the men's and women's glee clubs, presentation of "School for Scandal" by Cap and Dagger, a student art exhibit, open houses in the scientific and engineering laboratories, and meeting of the Mothers' Association and Fathers' Association.

Miss Spencer is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Spencer of Angeris. She has been active on the campus in her sorority, Delta Delta Delta, and the Christian Association.

She is listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" and is president of the women's student government. A resident of Senior Honor House, she is a member of Phi Delta Epsilon, Phi Alpha Theta, Sigma Tau Delta and Phi Beta Kappa, honorary fraternities.

600 Attend Tulsa Chorus, Rotary Benefit

Nearly 600 persons attended a concert Wednesday night by the University of Tulsa Chorus at State Teachers College auditorium.

Compositions by Tom Waring were featured by the chorus. Mr. Waring also appeared in a solo role during the program.

The local concert was sponsored by the Rotary Club of the Stroudsburgs with Edward Lawson serving as chairman of the committee which arranged the choral group's appearance.

Director of the choir is Arthur Hestwood. Proceeds from the concert go to the Rotary charities fund.

Rotary Club spokesmen reported the concert was "highly successful" both in terms of "artistry" and from financial standpoint.

Jack Zink Heads Learners Class

Cannadensis Jack Zink was elected president of the Learners of the Word Sunday School class of the local Methodist Church here recently.

Also elected are Reid Gravel, vice president; Joan Gravel, secretary and Judy Besecker, treasurer.

Also attending were Nancy Siglin, David Bixler and Ruth Seig.

Rubber soap dishes, rubber drain board covers, rubber bowl scrapers and rubber gloves may all be cleaned with a baking soda solution. Use three tablespoons of the soda dissolved in a quart of warm water.

Workshop To Show Tools For Christian Teaching

"New Tools For Successful Teaching" will be demonstrated at the workshop of the Monroe County Sunday School Association at the First Baptist Church in East Stroudsburg on Tuesday night at 7:30 on May 5.

The "Successful Teaching" film and filmstrip combination deals with teacher training and is basically intended as a leadership tool for use in the Sunday School and Christian education program of the church.

The preview of this film is intended especially for the ministers, Sunday School Superintendents, directors of Christian education and those interested in the best methods of teaching.

This is a new release of visual presentations by the Moody Bible Institute. Coming from an unimpeachable source, it should prove of interest and profit for all who are interested in better teaching and teaching methods.

Poppy Sales Planned By VFW Auxiliary

The plans for the 1953 VFW Poppy Campaign were presented at the meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary at their meeting Monday night at the VFW Home. The new president, Mrs. Celia Sipthoff, presided. Chester Mertens explained the coming Poppy Campaign.

Auxiliary members named as chairmen in the various localities included: Stroudsburg, Georgia Albertson and Mabel Hippler; East Stroudsburg, Edith Walton and Ethel Kintner; Mountainhome, Helen Sickler; Delaware Water Gap, Lucille Anuskevich. Mrs. Albertson will serve as general chairman for the auxiliary.

Mrs. Sipthoff also announced the names of the chairmen who will serve on her staff through the coming year: Membership: Stroudsburg, Kathryn Weary; East Stroudsburg, Margaret Fritz; Mountain, Lydia Christensen.

Welfare: Jean Weller, Stroudsburg; Sadie Decker, East Stroudsburg; Ruth Everett, Mountain.

Hospital, Frances Ransberger; flowers and cards, Edith Walton; candy and sodas, Grace Shook; Cancer, Cecelia Hagerty; cards, Marion Bonser and Grace Shook; Coupons, Margaret Fritz; publicity, Margaret Goldy; entertainment and hospitality, Georgia Albertson, Lucille Coyne, Stella Metzgar, Ethel Dickinson and Mabel Hippler.

During the meeting, $25 was donated toward the Cancer Research program. Mrs. Florence Edinger was elected as trustee for three years. She will be installed at the next meeting, Monday, May 11.

Attendance prizes were awarded to Hazel Ellenberger and Margaret Goldy.

Hamilton PTA Plans May Day; Reelects Officers And Hears Of Children's Library

Hamilton Township—The May Day Party planned for all the children of Hamilton Township was discussed at the meeting of the Hamilton Parent-Teachers Association held Tuesday night in the Kellersville school.

It will be held Thursday, May 7, at Varkony's. In case of rain it will be postponed until Friday, May 8, when it will be held, rain or shine. If the weather permits it will be held at Varkony's, but in case of rain will be moved indoors to the Saylorsburg Fire Hall.

Mrs. Andrew Keiser has arranged for student teachers from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College to lead the recreation period from 1:30 to 3 p. m. Mrs. Elmer Veety is in charge of the refreshments which will be served from 3 until 3:30. Parents are co-operating in transportation of pupils.

The May Day party was but one item on a crowded agenda. Officers were re-elected for the coming year with Verdon Frailey, president; Mrs. Ford Warner, vice president; Mrs. John Cummings, secretary, and Thomas Rogers, treasurer.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $227.50. Mrs. Albert Nelson announced that she would distribute information sheets among the school children about the bake sale to be held at Wyckoff's on Saturday, May 9.

The matter of the school jointure and of transportation for the Scotia school also came up during the meeting. These subjects were too hot to handle at this meeting, Rogers said. He deplored the fact that in the face of vital community interests involved at the present time that an average of not more than 20 parents out of a membership of 184 in the Hamilton PTA bothered to attend the meetings.

Also discussed was the matter of student compensation insurance. At least 50 per cent of the students would have to apply in order that the protection be made available at a $1 per student cost, it was pointed out.

Mrs. Arthur Ifft, children's librarian at the Monroe County Library, was the guest speaker. She was introduced by Mrs. Elmer Veety, program chairman.

She brought with her a large selection of children's books from the local library shelves to illustrate the volume and variety of books available free to all school children upon request of their teachers.

During the past year, Mrs. Ifft pointed out, 49,000 books were circulated in 28 county schools through the Bookmobile, which the Kiwanis Club gave to the library in 1940. In rare cases where a school principal refuses the Bookmobile aids, Mrs. Ifft said, a teacher may make personal trips to the library to select books for her students. In some cases, the teachers even prefer to make personal selections directly from the library. Some schools stick to the Penn-Co approved reading list compiled by the state.

The Monroe County library, she said, is one of only 27 county libraries in Pennsylvania. It maintains a file of back copies of many magazines with an index to the subject matter to help students doing research or special study, or for children with special interests which range from snakes, through astronomy, anatomy to Indians.

Fourth graders, she has found, prefer biographies of famous people, written on their own level.

The children's room is open every day from 2:30 to 6 p. m. and also from 7 to 9 p. m. on Wednesdays and from 10 to 12 p. m. on Saturdays. Specific questions are invited, she said, and announced that the library telephone is listed as Stroud Community House.

Mrs. Ifft also explained how branch libraries may be opened anywhere there is a suitably located room and a person willing to take the responsibility of being librarian a few hours each week. Mrs. Ifft's husband, Arthur Ifft, county agricultural representative, assisted her.

Mrs. Ethel Rinker's school at Snyder'sville won the $2 attendance prize for the fourth consecutive time for having the most parents present.

The May meeting will be held Tuesday, May 26, in the Kellersville school with a program of entertainment honoring the "One Room Schoolhouse," being prepared by Mrs. Elmer Veety.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Daughter Is Born

Mr. and Mrs. George Lashak, of 105 Crystal St., East Stroudsburg, announce the birth of a daughter, Dawn Renee, born Monday at the General Hospital. The baby weighed 9 pounds 6 ounces.

Mrs. Lashak is the former Evelyn Munsell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Munsell, East Stroudsburg.

"You may now speak of him as Frank and me as Buck," says Pete Wyckoff, referring to an adventure shared the other day with Jack LeBar, head of our Wyckoff maintenance staff. And since the boys really did "Bring 'em back alive," I think their story is worth repeating.

ANYTHING can happen to any one of us in line of duty at "the friendly store" where we go to great lengths to please a customer. That's why Pete and Jack found themselves heading for the Barrett region the other day on a truck loaded with beautiful new chairs for one of the hotels. Our customer had been promised prompt delivery, but there was no one else around to make good on the promise when the merchandise arrived unexpectedly, so Pete and Jack set forth together.

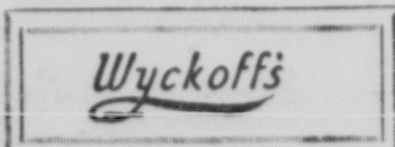

As they were driving along, they suddenly came to a traffic block. Getting out to investigate, they found a group of people standing beneath a tree, tossing stones at a coon who shivered and shook as he clung to the branches. Back in the truck, Jack was struck by sudden inspiration. Pete and he stuck their heads from the window and began calling, "Here, Coonie, Coonie . . . here Coonie."

Much to their surprise, the animal started down the tree, headed for the Wyckoff truck and tried to climb in. It was at this point that Jack noted the strangely ferocious look in its eyes. "That coon is either sick or someone's pet," he concluded. "But in any case I don't like the look in his eyes. Suppose we go on and deliver these chairs?"

Their errand accomplished, the fellows began thinking once again about the shaking, shivering animal, and wondered whether they would see him again en route home. They did just where they had seen him last. Mr. Coon was seated atop a rock in the sun, washing himself, and occasionally trembling violently. But his interest in them was gone. He paid no attention at all to their calls, and didn't deign to look at them even though they advanced within touching distance.

At this point the boys remembered their scouting days. Mr. Coon, if true to form, would be intrigued by something shiny. So, holding a box up-ended Jack and Pete placed a knife inside—one with a blade that glinted in the sun. Sure enough, Mr. Coon was as curious as an inquiring reporter. Little by little he edged up to the box, finally stepping inside.

Thus it was that Jack and Pete brought him back alive. Actually, he wasn't that way long. Summoning an expert for advice, the boys learned that their fears were correct. The coon was seriously sick, and it was not only an adventure but very possibly a public service, when he was taken into captivity, and finally put to sleep. But then, when it comes right down to it, public service is a Wyckoff specialty.

Barrett Plans Music Week Observance

Cresco — National Music Week will be observed in Barrett Township Schools with a series of three concerts from May 3 to May 9.

First of the concerts will be given Monday, May 4 at 12:30 p. m. for the entire student body.

The program will include selections by the Senior Band, two musical films on "The Telephone Hour" and "The River Moldau".

On Tuesday, May 5 at 9 a. m. a special assembly will be held for grades one through six.

Junior Band will be featured at that concert with piano solos, violin solos and a clarinet ensemble rounding out the bill.

The third and final concert will be held on Friday, May 8 at 8:15 p. m. in the school auditorium, featuring the Girls Chorus, Senior Band and various soloists.

The general public is cordially invited to attend any of the special assemblies or the Spring concert, it was announced by Martin Peiffer, supervisor of music education in the Barrett Schools.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Jack Mullins, president of the Monroe County Softball League, has been appointed Monroe County Softball Commissioner for the Keystone Amateur Softball Association for 1953. It was announced last night by Leonard F. Zimmer, association president. The appointment came as a result of Mullins' long association with the game of softball, as a player, manager, league official and fan—and above all a good sportsman. The Monroe County Softball League is scheduled to open its season on two fronts on Monday. Games will be played at Stroudsburg Playground and East Stroudsburg Junior High school.

Ray Steele, former outstanding baseball and basketball star at East Stroudsburg High School, was treated roughly by Elmira, in his first Eastern League start on Wednesday. Steele, first of four Williamsport hurlers, gave up six hits and four walks good for seven runs in two and one-third innings, as Elmira got off to a flying start that resulted in a 13-2 victory for the latter. Ray fanned two batters and was guilty of one wild pitch. Steele received his starting assignment on Wednesday, only after the weather man had postponed his original starting assignment for three days.

Steele pitched four innings of brilliant relief ball against Reading recently, in his only appearance on the hill in league play prior to Wednesday. Harry Warner, Reading's resident and former Pocono High athletic great, is battling over 300 for Jacksonville, Fla., of the class "A" South Atlantic League, at the present time. Harry has connected for one home run to date. Dominick Della Rocca, former infielder for the Stroudsburg Poconos, is almost a regular performer at shortstop for Reading at the present time. Bill Spangler, first base, and Billy Habel, second base, are two graduates of the North Atlantic League, now playing with Schenectady, Eastern League.

Jack Swartz, former three-letter athlete at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, is scheduled to play with the Carbondale Pioneers for the 1953 campaign. The Carbondale entry in the Mid-Valley League is the same one mentioned in this column yesterday. Billy Long, veteran North Atlantic League infielder and pilot of Tarboro, N.C., of the class "D" Coastal Plain League, will undoubtedly handle the second base post in addition to the managerial duties.

Judy and Jeanne Vogt, who held down the number two and three singles positions for Drexel Tech's tennis team against East Stroudsburg State Teachers College on Wednesday, are twins. Martha McAndrew, a member of the ESSTC second doubles twosome, suffered a pinched nerve in one of her arms during a Tuesday practice session, but she came right back on Wednesday with a fine display of talent that enabled ESSTC to score its second 5-0 victory in as many outings. The twins have been over Quinsus and Drexel.

Pat Colgan, former manager of the Carbondale entry in the North Atlantic League, has launched the baseball school program for the Philadelphia Phillies this season. Rumors coming out of the Eastern League indicate that Stan Palys will be sent back to Terre Haute, Ind., of the class "B" Three-I-League, by Schenectady. Palys, who began his pro diamond career with Carbondale, NAL, was with the parent Phillies for spring training, but has had some trouble getting started in the class "A" Eastern League this spring.

At least one baseball club in the Blue Mountain League would like to have the services of Frank Radler, former manager of the Stroudsburg Poconos and a pitcher of outstanding ability. Work is underway at Stroudsburg Speedway at the present time in order to get the track ready for the grand opening on May 16 or 17. At least two major league scouts are interested in signing Lyle Krall, ESSTC shortstop, at the close of the current college diamond campaign. The ESSTC infield committed five errors behind Lloyd "Sonny" Woodling and deprived the little right hander of the victory he so richly deserved on Wednesday.

St. Peter's College took advantage of six boots in all, two by Jim Passaro, and one each by Krall, Woodling, Charley Shaw and Harold "Hal" Sisco, enabled the Jersey City school to score four unearned runs and win by a 6-4 final count. All of the ESSTC tallies were of the earned variety. The loss was the third in four outings for the ESSTC diamond organization, the same team that will oppose Kutztown State Teachers on the Normal Hill field today at 3 p.m. The ESSTC tennis contingent, loser of four straight matches, also plays host to Kutztown today. Today's baseball game and tennis match were originally listed for Saturday, April 18, but were washed off the books at that time by rain.

Stroudsburg At Home With Whitehall High Today

Mountaineers Uncertain Of Starting Crew

Stroudsburg High may answer the call to arms with a patchwork baseball team today, as the Mountaineers play host to Whitehall High in a Lehigh Valley League contest at Gordon Giffels field. The game is scheduled to get underway at 4 p.m.

Coach Jerry Stulgaitis will have to wait until almost game time to name his starting lineup, due to complications that have set in since the Mountaineers scored a 2-1 victory over Palmyra on Tuesday. Al Adelman, who is currently confined to his bed with illness, may be out of the Stroudsburg lineup for a week. Stulgaitis announced last night that Benny Miller would move from right field to center and that Dave Nevil will take over the right field duties. Long ball hitting Jim "Red" Makosky will patrol his usual left field area.

Layton DeHaven, regular Stroudsburg catcher and Co-Captain of the club, has been hampered by a sore arm during the early portion of the present campaign.

and the arm is so sore at the present time that it is quite possible that DeHaven will have to turn the catching duties over to Dick Compton, number two receiver on the squad, today. Paul "Doc" Lim was out of school yesterday with a face infection that closed one eye before hot compresses were applied. If Lim is unable to appear in the starting lineup today, Dale Newhart will probably take over the second base post.

The remainder of the infield will feature Co-Captain Floyd "Willie" Williams, first base; Karl Weingartner, shortstop, and Dick "Pickles" Hintze, third base.

Bill "Bump" Metzger, senior southpaw pitcher who has won one and lost a single game thus far this season, will be on the firing line for the Mountaineers.

Both Whitehall and Stroudsburg will present identical records of two wins and a single setback in the Lehigh Valley League wars thus far this season. Whitehall knocked East Stroudsburg from the ranks of the undefeated on Tuesday.

East Stroudsburg High is scheduled to enjoy an open date on its diamond slate today.

Pitt Announces New Court Coach

Pittsburgh (AP) — Robert Timmons, 40-year-old football end mentor at the University of Pittsburgh, accepted the head basketball coaching post yesterday at his alma mater.

Never Played Timmons, who never played college varsity basketball, succeeds Dr. H.C. Carlson, who resigned last week after 31 years. The new basketball mentor will continue his football duties.

Bangor Invades Nazareth Field

Bangor—Bangor High will go in search of its second straight Lehigh-Northampton League baseball victory, and third straight of the season, when the Slaters invade the home domain of Nazareth High today. The game is scheduled to begin promptly at 4 p.m.

Pitcher Bob Egbert, veteran right hander, will probably receive the pitching nomination from Coach Dave Thomas, as the Slaters attempt to stretch their streak.

Bangor took the measure of Nazareth in a pre-season exhibition contest here at Memorial Park, 16-7. The Slaters also defeated Belvidere in a pre-season contest and then took the measure of Copkey in the first league outing.

Wall Breaks Par In Pan American Golf

Mexico City, (AP) — Dave Douglas, of Newark, Del., and Mexico's Margarito Martinez fired three-under-par 69's yesterday to take the first round lead in the $15,000 Pan American Open Golf Tournament.

Only seven players managed to break or tie the par on the 7,400-yard Mexico Golf Club course. This was in sharp contrast to the Mexico Open which was held in February when so many players broke par that officials were embarrassed. The players blamed the unusually fast greens for yesterday's high scores.

Ben Hogan of Palm Springs, Calif., who caused an uproar in the professional ranks when the rumor got around that he had been guaranteed $5,000 to play here, just made par 72, as did Johnny Palmer of Charlotte, N.C.

Third was another surprise. Art Wall of Honesdale, Pa., who posted a 26-35 71. He, Martinez and Douglas were the only ones to break par.

Rain Halts Phillies, Cards

Philadelphia (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies and the St. Louis Cardinals played to a 1-1 stalemate last night. The game was called because of rain. It will be played off at a later date.

Records All pitching, fielding and batting records will count in the records. Wilmer Mizell and Robin Roberts were the pitchers.

The rains came at 9:43 p.m., EDT, and 31 minutes later the umpires decided there was no use waiting any longer for a break in the clouds and downpour.

Three Diamond Clashes Listed For Monroe County League

Three important baseball encounters are on tap for the Monroe County League today, all scheduled to get under way at 2:30 p.m., with the kind permission of the weatherman.

TTSS, defending baseball champion and winner of its only start thus far this season, is slated to tangle with Chestnut Hill, at Erod-headsville.

ESSTC Plays Host To Kutztown

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College will play host to Kutztown State Teachers today, in a baseball game and tennis match, both scheduled to begin at 3 p.m. Both events will be held on the Normal Hill campus.

Coach George Ockershausen is expected to be at the helm of his baseball team, although the hard working mentor was struck on the head by a thrown ball at yesterday's practice and knocked unconscious.

Jim Passaro is scheduled to receive his initial starting assignment of the season on the mound and will be entrusted with the task of giving the Warriors their second win in five outings thus far this season.

Lineup The remainder of the starting lineup will find Hobart "Hobe" Hutchins, catcher; Bob Hartman, first base; Bill Frenz, second base; Lyle Krall, shortstop; Harold "Hal" Sisco, third base; Art Schaar, left field; Norman Ontone, center field; and Bill Shires, right field.

Action on the tennis courts will find the home team trying to land its first victory in five outings.

Coach Frank Grimm will probably use Joe Maioriello, Don Tott, Craig Leatherman, Bill Maioriello, Carson Deffenbaugh, Bob Durkin and Tony Binch in an attempt to break the losing habit.

Pirates Trip Cubs On Circuit Blow

Pittsburgh (AP) — Outfielder Frank Thomas blasted a two-run homer over the left field score board in the ninth inning to break up a tie ball game and give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-2 victory yesterday over the Chicago Cubs.

Rally Southpaw Paul Minner mowed down the Pirates until he weakened in the eighth. Johnny Lindell's pinch double followed by another two base blow by Carlos Bernier knotted the contest at 2-ally. Up until that time the Pirates had collected only two hits. Bill Face was the winning pitcher.

The payoff blow against Minner came with one out. Danny O'Connell walked but was forced at second on Ralph Kiner's hunt to the mound.

Giants Blank Milwaukee, 1-0

New York, (AP) — A weak version of the Bobby Thomson special, a home run into the leftfield stands, gave the puny-hitting New York Giants a 1-0 ninth inning decision over the Milwaukee Braves yesterday after three straight losses.

Good Pitching Thomson's homer came with one out in the ninth to end a pitching duel between Sal Maglie and Milwaukee's Vern Bickford. It wasn't much of a wallop compared to Bobby's famous playoff homer into the same area, but it was more effective than the shakeup of the batting order made by Manager Leo Durocher yesterday.

Yankees Roll Over White Sox

Chicago (AP) — The New York Yankees whipped the Chicago White Sox, 6-1, yesterday on an attack launched with two successive homers, one a disputed poke by Mickey Mantle which chased Sox Manager Paul Richards out of the rain-delayed game.

The two bleacher shots came in the fourth inning. Mantle's blast bounded back into the field. The other was the first major league homer by rookie Bill Renna, who also tripled and singled in four trips.

Dodgers Outlast Reds, 7-4

Brooklyn, (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers, behind the strong relief pitching of Ben Wade and a pair of two-run homers by "Duke" Snider and "Pee Wee" Reese, conquered the Cincinnati Redlegs 7-4, yesterday to climb into second place in the National League pennant race.

Wade took over in the first inning after Cincinnati had shelved starter Johnny Podres for two quick runs and held the Redlegs at bay the rest of the way. Good Start The Dodgers collected 10 hits, six of them coming in the first three innings when they did all their scoring. The Reds picked up two runs off Podres, the rookie southpaw, after Cincinnati had shelved starter Johnny Podres for

Six Players Fined For Brawl During Tuesday's
Major League Tussle Between Yanks, Browns

Chicago, (AP)—President Will Harridge of the American League yesterday fined four New York Yankees and two St. Louis Browns players a total of $830 for Tuesday night's player brawl in St. Louis.

The players involved in Harridge's decision undoubtedly were disgruntled, but only one would pose for pictures, or comment on the fines.

Catcher Clint Courtney of the Browns was held mainly responsible for the 10th inning melee and was assessed the biggest fine, $250.

Bill Hunter, Brownie infielder who, Harridge said, "went out of his way to fight," was fined $150. The New Yorkers fined were second baseman Billy Martin, $150; first baseman Joe Collins, pitcher Allie Reynolds, and third baseman Gil McDougald, $100 each.

The free-for-all followed when Courtney singled and tried to stretch the hit to a double. He slid into second base, trampling Yankee shortstop Phil Rizzuto.

Players from both teams rushed to midfield and fans showered the diamond with soda pop bottles and other debris.

The game was delayed 17 minutes and the teams played it out to a 7-6 Yankee victory.

Of the six players hit by Harridge's penalty, only Martin would comment. He told a newsman:

"I'm getting paid to play baseball and not to fight."

But Yankee Manager Casey Stengel expressed some anger that Harridge made no mention in his statement of the soda pop bottles thrown during the fracas by the partisan crowd.

"Ask those four umpires and ask Harridge whether there is a league rule against soda pop bottle throwing during a game," Stengel told a newsman. "If there is, then ask why such a thing happened at St. Louis."

"What if any of the umpires got hit in the head with a bottle, or if any of the players had to be carried off the field because he was hit?"

Sloppy Track Possible For Kentucky Derby

Louisville, Ky., (AP)—Grey skies and a grey colt named Native Dancer hogged the Kentucky Derby spotlight yesterday as trainers speculated on the possibility of an "off" track for the 75th running of the great American turf classic tomorrow.

Actually, many of the trainers are hoping the weatherman will bring rain and a muddy racing strip for the mile and one quarter battle of a dozen of the nation's classiest three-year-olds.

Scattered showers and possible thundershowers have been forecast for today and possibly tomorrow.

In the 78 derbies run to date, 30 have been raced on an off track and 48 on a fast strip. In the last 20 years, the track has been fast 14 times, and has been in that condition since 1918 when Citation won on a track made sloppy by showers.

Nothing New

Although Alfred Vanderbilt's unbeaten Derby favorite has had a fast track for 10 of his 11 victories, trainer Bill Winfrey isn't losing sleep about what kind of a footing Native Dancer and the other 11 or so get in the $100,000 glitter gallop.

"He ran on a sloppy track at Saratoga and it didn't bother him, and I think he can go all right over anything," said Winfrey as the Dancer strolled off the muddy Churchill Downs track yesterday morning. Rain fell all night, and Winfrey sent Native Dancer out for a casual gallop twice around the one-mile oval.

Correspondent, Mrs. Gordon Guiberson's California speedster and probable second favorite, also can travel on an off track, said trainer Wally Dunn.

"I would think Vanderbilt's undefeated horse is the one we'll have to beat, but Correspondent seems to handle any kind of track," the Canadian-born trainer said.

"And mud certainly would help that Greentree horse, Straight Face. 'As for my horse, if he was feeling any better we couldn't stand it,'" Dunn added with a grin.

Inaugural Handicap Set Gain Seventh Place

COMEDIANS ON THE COUCH

ly visited Los Angeles, he was feted with a banquet at Romanoff's and over 20 of his former patients gathered to do him honor—every one of them a celebrity.

Television has increased the need for psychiatry. In pre-Freudian days, actors could caress in night clubs until five in the morning and sleep until two.

Television is an exhausting business. It takes six full days of preparation to get a weekly show in shape. When an actor toppers home he is too weak to enjoy the actor's traditional safety valves—heavy drinking, heavy gambling or heavy romancing.

Under any circumstances, to get out on a lonely stage and try to make an audience laugh or cry puts a human being under great tension. When the audience numbers 20,000,000—and you have to come up with a brand new show every week—the tension is unbearable.

I was discussing a certain lavishly television program with a network executive. He told me, "Psychoanalysis is the only reason why show has stayed on the air three years. Not only the comedy star is being analyzed, but also his wife, two members of his supporting cast, three of his writers, his singer, the choreographer and the producer.

"I am convinced that without psychiatry the show would have folded last season. Things got so hectic on that program that even two of the stagehands had to be analyzed. In fact, after seeing the improvement in some of the personnel, I started going to an analyst myself."

Of all show business personalities, the comedians are the first to crack when the pressure mounts. Most comedians are inwardly morbid, gloomy, depressed, full of self-hatred. They have managed to come to uneasy terms with life by venting their hostility in a socially acceptable manner.

How does analysis help a comedian specifically? One bigtime comic for years suffered from a compulsion to knock a slab of wood four times before his program started.

It had to be a special kind of wood, old black walnut. If he forgot to knock on wood, he was flustered and gave a bad performance. One night, after he had been to an analyst for about six months, he asked himself, "Who's doing the show anyhow? Me or the wood?"

From then on, he stopped knocking on wood. This may seem like a ridiculous instance but a man suffering from a compulsion is neurotically wasting an

Angels Man Dies While

Sawing Wood

Newfoundland

The body of a man who had been dead seven days was found late Wednesday night in the attic of his home near Angels.

The dead man was Adolph Pesky, 77. His body was found by Justice of Peace S. E. Haag and Constable Norris Scott who investigated at the request of neighbors who told police they hadn't seen the elderly man for some time.

Officials found Pesky in the attic where he had been sawing a board. The saw was still wedged in the wood.

Wayne County Coroner Fred Holbert said death was probably due to a heart attack. Holbert estimated the man had been dead at least one week.

Surviving are a stepson, name unknown; one sister, Mrs. Stella Batrois, Pittston, Mass. will be held Saturday at 11 a. m. in St. Thomas More Church, Lake Ariel, Interment in Ledgedale Catholic Cemetery. Rosary services will be held tonight at Frey funeral home, South Sterling.

Homesdale State Police assisted in investigation of the incident.

enormous amount of energy that could be put to better use.

Naturally, with so many comedians coming to grips with the head-droppers, there are quite a few psychoanalysis jokes around Broadway.

There's one about the psychiatrist whose slogan was: results guaranteed—or your mania back!

And a certain comedian insists that when he was a little slow paying his analyst's bills, he got a note from the doctor which said, "If you don't pay me promptly, I will let you go out of your mind."
